WE WANTED VIP COACHES AS OUR REGULAR SUPPLIER LET US DOWN

We needed to transport hundreds of VIP guests for a high-profile event based in London. VIP coaches were required with an emphasis on reliability.

As our regular supplier was unable to fulfil the requirements, we reached out to CoachScanner with a very short notice. We were glad to say their account manager looked after us and our clients were extremely happy.

THE EXPERIENCE

Considering many VIP coaches were needed at late notice, CoachScanner excelled, we will be using their expert services going forward.
